ABOUT THE SOLDIER BOYS

Esley of Company I was selected by the adjutant Monday as orderly of the guard.
The "Shamrock Four" are as happy as ever, and consists of Sergeant Leary, the commander, Thomas Moffet, Thomas Hartigan and Thomas Burke. They might be appropriately called the "Four Toms."

Among the visitors at camp to-day were ex-Postmaster Newton of Wallingford, Lieutenant Reynolds of the naval reserve of New Haven and General Hawley of Hartford.

The detail of non-commissioned officers for the 4 o'clock drill to-day consisted of Corporal Edward, Miner, Marindale and Woodworth. The sergeant Leary came home Monday night to attend the councilmen's meeting.

The New Haven members of the signal corps are Sergeant Wheeler, Sergeant Blake, Corporal York, Private Brewer, Private McFarland, Private Manson, Private Sargent and Private Sparks.

THROWN FROM HIS HORSE.

Captain Glennon of Company E, Fourth regiment, met with a serious accident at 2:30 p. m. to-day while riding across the parade ground. The horse became frightened at the artillery and reared, throwing the captain to the ground. Captain Glennon was removed to his tent and after an examination by the staff surgeon it was found that two ribs were broken and that he was otherwise badly bruised. He was taken to his home in Bridgeport.

MORE STRAY SHOTS.

The "Bug Quartet" of the City Guard are still living, having feasted in grand style since coming into camp. They are Corporals Ploeger and Hennig, Chief of Police William Stander and Quartermaster Deiter.

The "Hungry Four" will have their opening to-morrow night and invite all their New Haven friends to participate. Charles Voos and Charles Henkel have arrived in camp after having spent a week at Saratoga. They belong to the "Soda Water Quartet."

Sergeant J. J. Dismas of Company C and Private James J. Kelley will be pleased to meet all their friends on Governor's day and will give them a military reception.

Guard mount at 1:30 of the Second regiment passed off in the usual good style, every man doing his duty.

Chief Trumpeter Percy Brown of Company A, who succeeded Chief Trumpeter Morris Meany, has proved himself worthy of his promotion.

Trumpeter Charles Ney of Company G is fast becoming one of the leading trumpeters of the regiment.

The guard drummers to-day were Chris Nolan of Company G and William Webster of Company A.

The guard detail of Company G consisted of Sergeant Danaher, Privates Hollywood, H. Johnson, P. Hanley, J. Cunningham and M. Hogan.

C. Russell of Company G leaves for home to-day and will return Thursday. General Lee of the band has decided not to take in any laundry this season on account of the mishap that befell his grand circular last season on the parade ground, when several of his best customers lost most of their laundry.

Schwinder Schmidt, the aquatic wonder, has contracted to furnish Caterer Hicks with salt for the week. Said salt is taken from his instruments, where it settles every day in large quantities since his fall overboard recently in Branford.

Speaker J. C. Gould strained the ligaments of his right arm very severely yesterday by overreaching himself owing to the depth of the well in which he had deposited cheese, butter and other valuables.

COLONEL BURPES' FATHER'S SWORD.
Colonel Burpes of the Second regiment wore at the parade this afternoon a sword left him by his father, Colonel Burpes of the Twenty-first Connecticut regiment, who was killed at Cold Harbor in June, 1864. Just after the distinguished soldier was shot he entrusted his sword to the chaplain of his regiment to be given his son, F. Burpes. The son resolved never to wear it unless he should reach a rank equal to his father's.

The plans to give the Governor's ball at the Morton house Thursday evening has been abandoned owing to the fact that the proprietor of the place has made a very decided raise in prices.

THE MUSIC IN CAMP.

Col's band, the organization which, under the direction of J. Oscar Casey, furnishes much martial inspiration to the First regiment, displayed its versatility yesterday by playing the "Kootchy-Kootchy" dance at guard mount and the good old psalm tune the "Old Hundred" at the regimental parade.

Charles A. Bradley, the caterer, has been highly complimented as manager of the Third regiment mess house. The tables are set neatly and look as well as many hotel tables, while the food is excellent.

WALLINGFORD.

The following notice was posted on the accustomed place yesterday:

"There will be a special meeting of the legal voters of the town of Wallingford in the town hall in said town on the 19th day of August, 1895, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to hear report of the committee appointed at the town meeting held August 6, 1895, to examine the roads of the town and report where in their judgment a special appropriation would be best expended, and to take such action as shall be deemed wise in relation to said report and the subject matter thereof. Also to make, if thought best, an appropriation for improving the roads of the town as provided by chapter CCCXV of the public acts of 1895, and to determine on what roads or section of roads the appropriation, if made, shall be expended, and the character of the improvements to be made, and to take any other proper action for the carrying out of the provisions of said chapter of the public acts in relation to the roads of said town."

By the rule the application should be in for the appropriation by August 13, but it is not thought that the commis-
